

May 2013

Entre Voczes is a student-run trilingual literary magazine (in Spanish, Portuguese, and English) housed at York University, that publishes original works of poetry, prose, and visual art inspired by the Hispanophone and Lusophone worlds.

Meet the new Panel

Elections for the 2013-14 Executive and General Panel were held on Wednesday April 17th. Led by Jessica Marino as Entre Voczes' new Editor-in-Chief, Carlos Franco (Media Representative), Katie Tetzloff (Head Editor Spanish), Galiatzo Flores Montoya (Head Editor Portuguese), Gavin Bembridge (Events Coordinator), Leslie Usin-Rojas (Lead Graphic Designer), Mariana Martinez (Glendon Representative), Kristen Pereira (Glendon Representative), and Joe Correia (Alumni Liaison) are all looking forward to the next year. The panel is currently discussing potential themes for the upcoming edition, and is eagerly anticipating the creative process.

Building skills and community through tutoring and conversation hours

Tutoring is offered free to all interested students taking courses in the Spanish Program and/or the Portuguese Studies Program, as well as for students who have general interest in these languages, literatures and cultures. Tutors will be available Mondays-Thursdays from 5-6pm, or by appointment. For more information, contact us at entrevoces.tutoring@gmail.com.

Entre Voczes on Twitter and Facebook

Continue to engage and interact with Entre Voczes throughout the summer months. Follow us on Twitter, @EntreVoczes or add us on Facebook, to receive the most up-to-date information about events, calls for submissions, and tutoring schedules.
